Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Eileen Leischner, who is retiring from the state of South Dakota Department of Public Safety after over 24 years of service; and,

Whereas, On March 30, 1992, Eileen began her career as a driver license examiner with the Driver Licensing Program at the Huron, South Dakota, exam station, then at the Sioux Falls, South Dakota, exam station; and,

Whereas, Eileen has distinguished her service to the Driver Licensing Program by her commitment to excellence, loyalty, and dedication to duty and has remained an influence and a close friend to many of the staff; and,

Whereas, Outside the office, Eileen has owned a business called Best Wishes Unlimited, loves the arts, was a long-time member of the Sweet Annalines, a founding member of 4Grace Christian Music Group, and is an avid dog lover; and,

Whereas, On December 23, 2016, Eileen is retiring to spend more time with her husband, Darrell, and family and will be missed by her friends and co-workers within the Driver Licensing Program; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement:

Now, Therefore, I Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 23, 2016, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in offering her best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifteenth Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Sixteen.

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Shantel Krebs, Secretary of State
